DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the preamble claims a safety catch for a nail gun, but it appears that some of the limitations claimed are to the nail gun itself. A possible preamble might be "A nail gun with a safety catch mechanism comprising:"

In claim 1, line 24, the recitation "foregoing components" is indefinite in that it fails to identify which components actually contribute to the function of the mechanism.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Austin, Wagdy, Thieleke, Pfister et al, Hirtl et al, Clark and Caringella et al have been cited to show devices having similar structure.
